

TENNESSEE

AGRICULTURE

2019 U.S. DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE

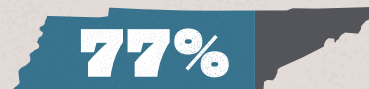

From the rolling mountains in the East to the fertile delta in the West, Tennessee contributes to the feeding of the world. Soybean fields give way to cattle-dotted pastures, chicken barns and tobacco rows fill landscapes. This is a state of crop tenders and animal raisers—Tennessee's agricultural producers. UT System researchers and Extension agents walk with them every step along the way.

2019 ANNUAL REVENUE AND NATIONAL RANKING

TENNESSEE FARMS

10.8 MILLION ACRES OF AGRICULTURE

COVERING 77% OF THE STATE

BY THE NUMBERS

69,700

FARMS IN THE STATE

$56.3 BILLION

AGRICULTURAL ECONOMIC OUTPUT*

$21.7 BILLION

FORESTRY ECONOMIC OUTPUT*

2019 PRODUCTION VOLUME

*When including their multiplier effects through the economy